Child and Family Services Agency

NOTICE OF FUNDING AVAILABILITY

The District of Columbia Child and Family Services Agency (CFSA) is soliciting applications from non-profit, community-based mentoring organizations that have well established mentoring programs and proven track records to partner with CFSA to provide volunteer mentors to adolescent youth who are CFSA-involved and have an open CFSA case.

CFSA intends to grant awards to multiple organizations to provide volunteer mentors who will serve 100 adolescent youth between 6 and 21 years of age who will be identified by CFSA based upon an individual assessment of each child's mentoring needs in the targeted age population. There is a further requirement that each partner organization selected be able to initially serve 20 CFSA-involved children at any point in time. The program may be expanded to serve an additional 100 CFSA-involved children, and applicants must have the capacity to serve an additional 20 children at any given time, for a capacity to serve a total of 40 children in the event the program is expanded. Organizations must be ready to accept referrals and begin providing services within 30 days of the grant award.

Successful applicants will provide mentoring services tailored to the population listed above. Grant funds may be used to cover specified administrative costs and to provide activity stipends for mentors' activities with children and youth, but may not be used to compensate mentors. Applicants who apply to this Request for Applications (RFA) must design mentoring services specific to the needs of the target populations as set out in the RFA. Bidders will be required to provide proof of their organizational capacity to recruit and train a sufficient number and complement of mentors who will keep the time commitments required in the RFA. Bidders will be required to provide proof of their capacity to screen mentors. A total not to exceed $100,000 is available for successful applicants.

The RFA will be released on October 2, 2006, and the deadline for submissions is October 30, 2006 at 5:00 p.m. to the Child and Family Services Agency, 400 6th St., S.W., Washington, D.C. 20024, Attention June Walden Yeager (202-442-6151). For additional information, please contact June Walden Yeager, at CFSA (202-442-6151).

The RFA will be available from CFSA, located at 400 6th St., S.W., Washington D.C. 20024. In addition, the RFA will be available at the Mayor's Office of Partnerships and Grants website (<http://www.opgdd.dc.gov>) under the link to the District Grants Clearinghouse.

ZONING COMMISSION ORDER NO. 02-32B
Order Denying Reconsideration
Case No. 02-32
(Georgetown University Campus Plan – Further Processing of Performing Arts Center)
November 14, 2005

This Order arises from an application by Georgetown University (“University”) requesting special exception approval under the campus provisions of the Zoning Regulations at 11 DCMR §§ 3104.1 and 210 for further processing of the University’s approved campus plan to allow construction and use of a performing arts center. Following a public hearing, the Commission voted on April 14, 2003 to grant the requested special exception; Order No. 02-32 was issued August 26, 2003. Parties in this proceeding, in addition to the University, are Advisory Neighborhood Commission 2E, the Citizens Association of Georgetown (“CAG”), the Burleith Citizens Association, and Cloisters in Georgetown, Inc.

On September 15, 2003, CAG filed a motion for reconsideration of Order No. 02-32 or, in the alternative, for clarification of Board of Zoning Adjustment Order No. 16566.¹ The University filed an opposition to CAG’s motion. The Commission denied the motion and request for clarification by Order No. 02-32A, issued October 13, 2005.

On September 23, 2003, the University filed a motion for reconsideration or, in the alternative, for stay of Paragraph 26 of Order No. 02-32. The University’s motion, opposed by CAG, sought to strike Paragraph 26 from Order No. 02-32, a provision stating that, for purposes of determining the University’s compliance with the conditions of approval of its campus plan, the Commission would consider the enrollment cap the “maximum permitted enrollment of undergraduate students at any given time,” and would not permit the University to demonstrate compliance with the cap using an average of fall and spring enrollment figures.² Alternatively, the University requested a stay of enforcement of Paragraph 26.

² Finding of Fact No. 26 of Z.C. Order No. 02-32 states:

The Commission does not agree with the Applicant that the use of average enrollment during an academic year is appropriate for purposes of determining compliance with the cap on undergraduate enrollment established in the Campus Plan. With respect to further processing

By Order No. 02-32A, the Commission denied the University's motion for reconsideration, because the Commission was not persuaded by the University that the use of average enrollment during an academic year to determine compliance with the cap on undergraduate enrollment was consistent with the intent of the Board of Zoning Adjustment ("BZA") in adopting the enrollment cap in Order No. 16566. However, the Commission also approved a one-year stay of its decision, finding that a phase-in of the enforcement of Paragraph 26 was appropriate to allow time for the University to come into compliance with the enrollment cap or to seek modification of the approved campus plan.

By motion dated November 7, 2005, the University requested reconsideration and clarification of Order No. 02-32A, noting that the BZA's original campus plan order had been superseded by its Remand Order, 16566-F. The University asserted that the Remand Order "explicitly countenances averaging as a means of compliance with the enrollment cap thus curing any arguable uncertainty about the BZA's intent." The University sought a clarification that the scope of Order No. 02-32A with respect to the enrollment cap issue was limited to the BZA's original campus plan order, and that the Commission did not intend its Order No. 02-32A to interpret or supersede the BZA's approval of averaging in the Remand Order.

The Commission notes that the BZA's Remand Order includes a condition that sets a cap on the University's undergraduate enrollment and provides for calculation of the cap as an average of the total undergraduate enrollment during the Fall and Spring semesters of the academic year.³ The Commission concludes that its decision – finding that the Board of Zoning Adjustment, in its initial decision conditionally approving the University's campus plan, did not intend to permit averaging in determining compliance with the cap on undergraduate enrollment – was made moot by the later Remand Order.

Accordingly, it is ordered that the MOTION of the University for reconsideration and clarification of Order No. 02-32A is GRANTED.

VOTE: 5-0-0 (Carol J. Mitten, Anthony J. Hood, Gregory N. Jeffries, John G. Parsons, and Kevin Hildebrand to grant the motion as moot).

applications that may be filed in the future, the Commission will not assess compliance with the enrollment cap on the basis of an average of the fall and spring semesters of the academic year, but will consider the enrollment cap to be the maximum permitted enrollment of undergraduate students at any given time during the academic year.

³ Condition No. 2 of the Remand Order (16566-F) states:

The Applicant shall not increase undergraduate enrollment above the cap of 6,016. This cap shall apply to traditional full-time undergraduate students (that is, undergraduate students who require housing) and shall be calculated as an average of the total enrollment of traditional undergraduate students during the Fall and Spring semesters of the academic year.
