TITLE III--GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 101. Whenever in this Act, an amount is specified within an appropriation for particular purposes or objects of expenditure, such amount, unless otherwise specified, shall be considered as the maximum amount that may be expended for said purpose or object rather than an amount set apart exclusively therefor.

SEC. 102. Appropriations in this Act shall be available for expenses of travel and for the payment of dues of organizations concerned with the work of the District of Columbia government, when authorized by the Mayor: provided, that in the case of the Council of the District of Columbia, funds may be expended with the authorization of the Chairman of the Council.

SEC. 103. There are appropriated from the applicable funds of the District of Columbia such sums as may be necessary for making refunds and for the payment of legal settlements or judgments that have been entered against the District of Columbia government.

SEC. 104. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall remain available for obligation beyond the current fiscal year unless expressly so provided herein.

SEC. 105. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), no part of this appropriation shall be used for publicity or propaganda purposes or implementation of any policy including boycott designed to support or defeat legislation pending before Congress or any State legislature.

(b) The District of Columbia may use local funds provided in this Act to carry out lobbying activities on any matter other than:

- (1) The promotion or support of any boycott; or
- (2) Statehood for the District of Columbia or voting representation in Congress for the District of Columbia.

(c) Nothing in this section may be construed to prohibit any elected official from advocating with respect to any of the issues referred to in subsection (b).

SEC. 106. (a) None of the funds provided under this Act to the agencies funded by this Act, both Federal and District government agencies, that remain available for obligation or expenditure in fiscal year 2005, or provided from any accounts in the Treasury of the United States derived by the collection of fees available to the agencies funded by this Act, shall be available for obligation or expenditures for an agency through a reprogramming of funds which:

- (1) Creates new programs;
- (2) Eliminates a program, project, or responsibility center;
- (3) Establishes or changes allocations specifically denied, limited, or increased under this Act;
- (4) Increases funds or personnel by any means for any program, project, or responsibility center for which funds have been denied or restricted;
- (5) Reestablishes any program or project previously deferred through reprogramming;
- (6) Augments any existing program, project, or responsibility center through a reprogramming of funds in excess of $1,000,000 or 10 %, whichever is less; or

ENROLLED ORIGINAL

(7) Increases by 20% or more personnel assigned to a specific program, project or responsibility center, unless the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and Senate are notified in writing 30 days in advance of the reprogramming.

(b) None the local funds contained in this Act may be available for obligation or expenditure for an agency through a transfer of any local funds in excess of $1,000,000 from one appropriation heading to another unless the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and Senate are notified in writing 30 days in advance of the transfer, except that in no event may the amount of any funds transferred exceed 4% of the local funds in the appropriations.

SEC. 107. In accordance with section 1301(a) of title 31, United States Code, appropriations under this Act shall be applied only to the objects for which the appropriations were made except as otherwise provided by law.

SEC. 108. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the provisions of the District of Columbia Government Comprehensive Merit Personnel Act of 1978, effective March 3, 1979 (D.C. Law 2-139; D.C. Official Code, sec. 1-601.01 et seq.), enacted pursuant to section 422(3) of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act (D.C. Official Code, sec. 1-204.22(3)), shall apply with respect to the compensation of District of Columbia employees: provided, that for pay purposes, employees of the District of Columbia government shall not be subject to the provisions of title 5, United States Code.

SEC. 109. No later than 30 days after the end of the first quarter of fiscal year 2005, the Mayor of the District of Columbia shall submit to the Council of the District of Columbia and the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and Senate the new fiscal year 2005 revenue estimates as of the end of such quarter. These estimates shall be used in the budget request for fiscal year 2006. The officially revised estimates at midyear shall be used for the midyear report.

SEC. 110. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the Mayor, in consultation with the Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia may accept, obligate, and expend Federal, private, and other grants received by the District government that are not reflected in the amounts appropriated in this Act.

(b)(1) No such Federal, private, or other grant may be accepted, obligated, or expended pursuant to subsection (a) until:

(A) The Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia submits to the Council a report setting forth detailed information regarding such grant; and

(B) The Council has reviewed and approved the acceptance, obligation, and expenditure of such grant.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1)(B), the Council shall be deemed to have reviewed and approved the acceptance, obligation, and expenditure of a grant if:

(A) No written notice of disapproval is filed with the Secretary to the Council within 14 calendar days of the receipt of the report from the Chief Financial Officer under paragraph (1)(A); or

(B) If such a notice of disapproval is filed within such deadline, the Council does not by resolution disapprove the acceptance, obligation, or expenditure of the grant within 30 calendar days of the initial receipt of the report from the Chief Financial Officer under paragraph (1)(A).

(c) No amount may be obligated or expended from the general fund or other funds of the District of Columbia government in anticipation of the approval or receipt of a grant under subsection (b)(2) or in anticipation of the approval or receipt of a Federal, private, or other grant not subject to such subsection.

(d) The Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia may adjust the budget for Federal, private, and other grants received by the District government reflected in the amounts appropriated in this Act or approved and received under subsection (b)(2) to reflect a change in the actual amount of the grant.

(e) The Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia shall prepare a quarterly report setting forth detailed information regarding all Federal, private, and other grants subject to this section. Each such report shall be submitted to the Council of the District of Columbia and to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and Senate not later than 15 days after the end of the quarter covered by the report.

SEC. 111. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, none of the funds made available by this Act or by any other Act may be used to provide any officer or employee of the District of Columbia with an official vehicle unless the officer or employee uses the vehicle only in the performance of the officer's or employee's official duties. For purposes of this subsection, the term "official duties" does not include travel between the officer's or employee's residence and workplace, except in the case of:

(1) An officer or employee of the Metropolitan Police Department who resides in the District of Columbia or is otherwise designated by the Chief of the Department;

(2) At the discretion of the Fire Chief, an officer or employee of the District of Columbia Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department who resides in the District of Columbia and is on call 24 hours a day or is otherwise designated by the Fire Chief;

(3) The Mayor of the District of Columbia; and

(4) The Chairman of the Council of the District of Columbia.

(b) The Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia shall submit by March 1, 2005, an inventory, as of September 30, 2004, of all vehicles owned, leased, or operated by the District of Columbia government. The inventory shall include, but not be limited to, the department to which the vehicle is assigned, the year and make of the vehicle, the acquisition date and cost, the general condition of the vehicle, annual operating and maintenance costs, current mileage, and whether the vehicle is allowed to be taken home by a District officer or employee and if so, the officer's or employee's title and residence location.

SEC. 112. None of the funds contained in this Act may be used for purposes of the annual independent audit of the District of Columbia government for fiscal year 2005 unless:

(1) The audit is conducted by the Inspector General of the District of Columbia, in coordination with the Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia, pursuant to section 208(a)(4) of the District of Columbia Procurement Practices Act of 1985, effective February 21, 1986 (D.C. Law 6-85; D.C. Official Code § 2-302.08(a)(4)); and

(2) The audit includes as a basic financial statement a comparison of audited actual year-end results with the revenues submitted in the budget document for such year and the appropriations enacted into law for such year using the format, terminology, and classifications contained in the law making the appropriations for the year and its legislative history.

SEC. 113. (a) No later than 30 calendar days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia shall submit to the appropriate committees of Congress, the Mayor, and the Council of the District of Columbia a revised appropriated funds operating budget in the format of the budget that the District of Columbia government submitted pursuant to section 442 of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act (D.C. Official Code, sec. 1-204.42), for all agencies of the District of Columbia government for fiscal year 2005 that is in the total amount of the approved appropriation and that realigns all budgeted data for personal services and other-than-personal-services, respectively, with anticipated actual expenditures.

(b) Applicability - This section shall apply only to an agency where the Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia certifies that a reallocation is required to address unanticipated changes in program requirements.

SEC. 114. None of the Federal funds made available in this Act may be transferred to any department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States Government, except pursuant to a transfer made by, or transfer authority provided in, this Act or other appropriation Act.

SEC. 115. Notwithstanding any other law, the District of Columbia Courts shall transfer to the general treasury of the District of Columbia all fines levied and collected by the Courts under section 10(b)(1) and (2) of the District of Columbia Traffic Act, approved March 3, 1925 (43 Stat. 1124; D.C. Official Code, sec. 50-2201.05(b)(1) and (2)). The transferred funds shall remain available until expended and shall be used by the Office of the Corporation Counsel for enforcement and prosecution of District traffic alcohol laws in accordance with section 10(b)(3) of the District of Columbia Traffic Act (D.C. Official Code, sec. 50-2201.05(b)(3)).

SEC. 116. None of the funds contained in this Act may be made available to pay:

(1) The fees of an attorney who represents a party in an action or an attorney who defends an action, including an administrative proceeding, brought against the District of Columbia Public Schools under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, approved February 14, 2003 (Public Law 108-6; 20 U.S.C. 1400 et seq.) in excess of $4,000 for that action; or

(2) The fees of an attorney or firm whom the Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia determines to have a pecuniary interest, either through an attorney, officer, or employee of the firm, in any special education diagnostic services, schools, or other special education service providers.

SEC. 117. The Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia shall require attorneys in special education cases brought under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act ("IDEA") in the District of Columbia to certify in writing that the attorney or representative rendered any and all services for which they receive awards, including those received under a settlement agreement or as part of an administrative proceeding, under the IDEA from the District of Columbia: provided, that as part of the certification, the Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia shall require all attorneys in IDEA cases to disclose any financial, corporate, legal, memberships on boards of directors, or other relationships with any special education diagnostic services, schools, or other special education service providers to which the attorneys have referred any clients as part of this certification: provided further, that the Chief Financial Officer shall prepare and submit quarterly reports to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and Senate on the certification of and the amount paid by the government of the District of Columbia, including the District of Columbia Public Schools, to attorneys in cases brought under IDEA: provided further, that the Inspector General of the District of Columbia may conduct investigations to determine the accuracy of the certifications.

SEC. 118. The amount appropriated by this Act may be increased by no more than $15,000,000 from funds identified in the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report as the District's fiscal year 2004 unexpended general fund surplus. The District may obligate and expend these amounts only in accordance with the following conditions:

(1) The Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia shall certify that the use of any such amounts is not anticipated to have a negative impact on the District's long-term financial, fiscal, and economic vitality.

(2) The District of Columbia may only use these funds for the following expenditures:

- (A) Unanticipated one-time expenditures;
- (B) To avoid deficit spending;
- (C) Debt Reduction;
- (D) Unanticipated program needs; or
- (E) To avoid revenue shortfalls.

(3) The amounts shall be obligated and expended in accordance with laws enacted by the Council in support of each such obligation or expenditure.

(4) The amounts may not be used to fund the agencies of the District of Columbia government under court ordered receivership.

(5) The amounts may be obligated and expended only after notification of the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and Senate in advance of any obligation or expenditure.

SEC. 119. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the Mayor, in consultation with the Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia may expend funds that are not reflected in the amounts appropriated in this Act to implement activities designed to improve the collection of taxes and revenue within the District: provided, that such increase in collections are estimated to be at least twice the increase in expenditure necessary to implement the activity: provided further, that such activity shall be approved by the Council, contingent upon the following:

(1) No written notice of disapproval being filed with the Secretary to the Council within 14 calendar days of the delivery of a request to Council by the Secretary to the Council from the Mayor, and no oral notice of disapproval being given during a meeting of the Council during such 14-calendar day period; absent such disapproval, the request shall be deemed to be approved; and

(2) Should notice of disapproval be given during such initial 14-calendar day period, the Council may approve or disapprove the request by resolution within 30 calendar days of the initial receipt of the request from the Mayor, or such request shall be deemed to be approved: provided further, that such increases shall comply with all reserve requirements contained in the District of Columbia Home Rule Act.

SEC. 120. (a) The amount appropriated by this Act as Other Type Funds may be increased by no more than 25% to account for an unanticipated growth in revenue collections.

(b) Conditions on Use - The District of Columbia may obligate or expend these amounts only in accordance with the following conditions:

(1) Certification by the Chief Financial Officer - The Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia shall certify that anticipated revenue collections support an increase in Other Type authority in the amount requested.

(2) No amount may be obligated or expended pursuant to subsection (a) until:

(A) The Chief Financial Officer submits to the Council a report setting forth detailed information regarding the unanticipated revenue; and

(B) The Council has reviewed and approved the obligation and expenditure of the unanticipated revenue.

(3) The Council shall be deemed to have reviewed and approved the obligation and expenditure of the unexpected revenue if:

(A) No written notice of disapproval is filed with the Secretary to the Council within 14 calendar days of the receipt of the report from the Chief Financial Officer under subparagraph (2)(A); or

(B) If a notice of disapproval is filed pursuant to subparagraph 3(A), the Council does not by resolution disapprove the obligation or expenditure of the unexpected revenue within 30 calendar days of the receipt of the report from the Chief Financial Officer under paragraph (2)(A).

(c) No amount may be obligated or expended from the general fund or other funds of the District of Columbia government in anticipation of the approval or receipt of unexpected revenue.

(d) The Chief Financial Officer may adjust the budget to reflect Other type funds approved under subsection (b)(2).

(e) Notice Requirement - The unexpected revenue may be obligated or expended only if the Mayor notifies the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and Senate in writing 30 days in advance of any obligation or expenditure.

(f) The Chief Financial Officer shall prepare a quarterly report setting forth detailed information regarding all unexpected revenue subject to this section. Each such report shall be submitted to the Council and to the Committees on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and Senate not later than 15 days after the end of the quarter covered by the report.

SEC. 121. Section 450A of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, approved December 24, 1973 (87 Stat. 803; D.C. Official Code, sec 1-204.50a), is amended as follows:

(a) Subsection (a) is amended as follows:

(1) Paragraph (1) is amended to read as follows:

"(1) In general. -- There is established an emergency cash reserve fund ("emergency reserve fund") as an interest-bearing account (separate from other accounts in the General Fund) into which the Mayor shall make a deposit in cash each fiscal year of such an amount as may be required to maintain a balance in the fund of at least 2% of the operating expenditures as defined in paragraph (2) of this subsection or such amount as may be required for deposit in a fiscal year in which the District is replenishing the emergency reserve fund pursuant to subsection (a)(7)."

(2) Paragraph (2) is amended to read as follows:

"(2) In general. -- For the purpose of this subsection, operating expenditures is defined as the amount reported in the District of Columbia's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report for the fiscal year immediately preceding the current fiscal year as the actual operating expenditure from local funds, less such amounts that are attributed to debt service payments for which a separate reserve fund is already established under this Act."

(3) Paragraph (7) is amended to read as follows:

"(7) Replenishment. -- The District of Columbia shall appropriate sufficient funds each fiscal year in the budget process to replenish any amounts allocated from the emergency reserve fund during the preceding fiscal years so that not less than 50% of any amount allocated in the preceding fiscal year or the amount necessary to restore the emergency reserve fund to the 2% required balance, whichever is less, is replenished by the end of the current fiscal year and 100% of the amount allocated or the amount necessary to restore the emergency reserve fund to the 2% required balance, whichever is less, is replenished by the end of the second fiscal year following each such allocation."

(b) Subsection (b) is amended as follows:

(1) Paragraph (1) is amended to read as follows:

"(1) In general. -- There is established a contingency cash reserve fund ("contingency reserve fund") as an interest-bearing account, separate from other accounts in the general fund, into which the Mayor shall make a deposit in cash each fiscal year of such amount as may be required to maintain a balance in the fund of at least 4% of the operating expenditures as defined in paragraph (2) of this subsection or such amount as may be required for deposit in a fiscal year in which the District is replenishing the emergency reserve fund pursuant to subsection (b)(6)."

(2) Paragraph (2) is amended to read as follows:

"(2) In general. -- For the purpose of this subsection, operating expenditures is defined as the amount reported in the District of Columbia's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report for the fiscal year immediately preceding the current fiscal year as the actual operating expenditure from local funds, less such amounts that are attributed to debt service payments for which a separate reserve fund is already established under this Act."

(3) Paragraph (6) is amended to read as follows:

"(6) Replenishment. -- The District of Columbia shall appropriate sufficient funds each fiscal year in the budget process to replenish any amounts allocated from the contingency reserve fund during the preceding fiscal years so that not less than 50% of any amount allocated in the preceding fiscal year or the amount necessary to restore the contingency reserve fund to the 4% required balance, whichever is less, is replenished by the end of the current fiscal year and 100% of the amount allocated or the amount necessary to restore the contingency reserve fund to the 4% required balance, whichever is less, is replenished by the end of the second fiscal year following each such allocation."

SEC. 122. For fiscal year 2005, the Chief Financial Officer shall re-calculate the emergency and contingency cash reserve funds amount established by Section 450A of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, approved December 24, 1973 (87 Stat. 803; D.C. Official Code, sec. 1-204.50a), as amended by this Act and is authorized to transfer funds between the emergency and contingency cash reserve funds to reach the required percentages; provided, that for fiscal year 2005, the Chief Financial Officer may transfer funds from the emergency and contingency cash reserve funds to the general fund of the District of Columbia to the extent that such funds are not necessary to meet the requirements established for each fund: provided, that
