By virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the District of Columbia by section 422(4) and (11) of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act of 1973, as amended, 87 Stat. 790, Pub. L. No. 93-198, D.C. Official Code § 1-204.22(4) and (11) (2001), it is hereby ORDERED that:

I. ESTABLISHMENT

II. FINDINGS

- More than 7,000 District of Columbia residents are currently incarcerated, and a majority of these individuals are serving their time in federal correctional institutions.
- Because approximately 2,500 ex-offenders return to the District every year, the District should develop collaborative efforts to help ex-offenders make the transition back into their communities.
- The District government has applied for and received a $2 million grant from the U.S. Department of Justice to fund a re-entry pilot program that will serve 205 qualifying ex-offenders.
- Local and federal stakeholders have formed a lead advisory body, the D.C. Re-Entry Planning Committee, that can help to implement the Initiative. A number of local and federal agencies are involved in this effort.
- The Initiative will include the efforts of those agencies involved in the advisory body and other local and federal agencies, as follows:

Office of the Deputy Mayor for Children, Youth, Families and Elders;

Office of the Deputy Mayor for Public Safety and Justice;
Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency, (CSOSA);

U.S. Bureau of Prisons;
Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice;
Department of Human Services;
Department of Employment Services;
Department of Mental Health;
Department of Housing and Community Development; and Department of Health.

III. PURPOSE AND GOALS:

The EOREI shall function as a model effort to bring together all available resources to meet the needs of participating ex-offenders by integrating employment services with a full range of human and support services. The EOREI shall have five fundamental goals:

- To prevent re-offending;
- To enhance public safety;
- To re-deploy and leverage existing community resources;
- To assist ex-offenders to avoid crime by engaging ex-offenders in pro-social community activities; and
- To help ex-offenders meet their family responsibilities.

IV. DUTIES AND FUNCTIONS

The major goals of the EOREI are to assist in providing and promoting intensive support services that will promote positive life and career goals for ex-offenders and that will strengthen and secure their long-term futures. Specific activities include the following:

- A. Provision of infrastructure for coordination and efficient delivery of ex-offender focused services in the District;
- B. Assessment of the need and submission of recommendations for additional ex-offender policies and programs to District government agencies;
- C. Expansion of public awareness efforts regarding the importance of viable educational and career opportunities for ex-offenders in the District;

- D. Collaboration with private and non-profit organizations, including faith-based organizations, in the promotion of viable opportunities for ex-offenders;
- E. Identification of obstacles that prevent improvement efforts for ex-offenders and recommendations for eliminating those obstacles; and
- F. Assistance in public presentations regarding the Initiative's goals and accomplishments.

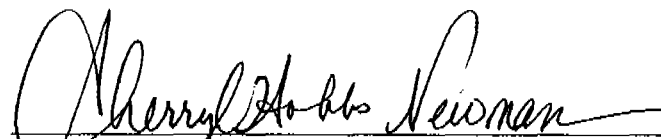

V. ADMINISTRATION

The Office of the Deputy Mayor for Children, Youth, Families and Elders shall provide administrative support to the EOREI. The Deputy Mayor shall designate a member of his staff to act as the EOREI coordinator and to monitor service delivery, ensure that services are identified and provided in a timely manner, and incorporate the resources provided by community service agencies.
