OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY MAYOR FOR PUBLIC SAFETY AND JUSTICE

NOTICE OF FINAL RULEMAKING

The Acting Deputy Mayor for Public Safety and Justice, pursuant to the authority set forth in section 14(a) of the Office of Administrative Hearings Establishment Act of 2001 (the "Act"), effective March 6, 2002 (D.C. Law 14-76; D.C. Official Code § 2-1831.11(a) (2002 Supp.)), Mayor's Order 2003-53 (50 DCR 4290 (May 2, 2003)), Mayor's Order 2004-98 (June 9, 2004), and § 6(c) of the District of Columbia Administrative Procedure Act, approved October 21, 1968 (82 Stat. 1206; D.C. Official Code § 2-505(c) (2001 ed.)), hereby gives notice of the adoption of a new Chapter 37 to Title 6 of the District of Columbia Municipal Regulations (DCMR). These rules prescribe standards and procedures for the operations of the Commission on the Selection and Tenure of Administrative Law Judges pertaining to the appointment, reappointment, discipline, removal and qualifications of Administrative Law Judges in the Office of Administrative Hearings established by the Act.

A notice of proposed rulemaking was published in the D.C. Register (50 DCR 8619) on October 10, 2003. The rules were revised in response to comments received, and the revised rules were proposed by a subsequent notice published in the D.C. Register (50 DCR 10829) on December 19, 2003.

On January 26, 2004, the revised proposed rules were transmitted to the Council, pursuant to D.C. Official Code § 2-1831.11(a), for a 45-day Council review period, after which the rules were to be deemed approved, if not disapproved by resolution within the 45-day review period. The review period has expired, and the Council did not disapprove the rules within the review period. Therefore, the revised proposed rules are now deemed approved pursuant to D.C. Official Code § 2-1831.11(a). Comments to the revised proposed rules were received, but based on those comments, no changes were made to the revised proposed rules as published in the D.C. Register (50 DCR 10829) on December 19, 2003 and as deemed approved by the Council.

The final rules were adopted on July 2, 2004 and will become effective upon publication of this notice in the D.C. Register.

Title 6 DCMR is amended by adding a new Chapter 37 to read as follows:

Any initial review panel shall follow the procedures set forth in sections 3701.17 to 3701.24, and, if it uses an initial review panel, the Commission shall follow the procedures set forth in sections 3701.25 to 3701.26.

Alternatively, the Commission may proceed in any other manner consistent with the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution, but all appointments must be approved by a majority of the voting members of the Commission.

This subsection does not prohibit any Administrative Law Judge or any other employee of the Office from performing his or her assigned duties.
- 3701.12 [RESERVED]
- 3701.13 If one or more vacancies exist, and an initial review panel is to be used, the Chief Administrative Law Judge shall file with the Commission a list of proposed members of an initial review panel for a specific vacancy or vacancies. The Chief Administrative Law Judge shall specify the number of vacancies for which each individual review panel is to be formed.
- 3701.14 Each person named in the list submitted by the Chief Administrative Law Judge may become a member of an initial review panel if a majority of the voting members of the Commission approves such person.

- 3701.15 Any voting member of the Commission who disapproves of any proposed member of an initial review panel shall file a written statement to that effect with the Commission within ten days of the filing of the list with the Commission.
- 3701.16 Any person who has not been disapproved by a majority of the voting members of the Commission within fifteen (15) days of the filing of his or her name with the Commission shall be deemed to be approved by the Commission as a member of an initial review panel.

- 3701.21 [RESERVED]
- 3701.22 In deciding which applications, if any, should be forwarded to the Commission, an initial review panel shall consider the candidates' legal knowledge, judgment, analytical skills, the amount and the quality of their experience in the practice of law, their judicial temperament and character, their case management skills, and their ability to contribute to the mission of OAH.
- 3701.23 An initial review panel shall not forward to the Commission the application of any candidate who does not satisfy the qualifications prescribed in the Act and in section 3703.
- 3701.24 An initial review panel shall not forward to the Commission the application of any applicant who fails to submit:

The Commission shall interview all candidates whose names are forwarded by an initial review panel and may interview any other qualified candidate upon the vote of a majority of the voting members. At least two voting members of the Commission shall attend any interview of an applicant.
- 3701.26 For any vacancy, the Commission may appoint a candidate from among the candidates it has interviewed for that vacancy. In making its decision, the Commission shall evaluate the candidates' legal knowledge, judgment, analytical skills, the amount and the quality of their experience in the practice of law, their judicial temperament and character, their case management skills, and their ability to contribute to the mission of OAH. The Commission may decide not to appoint any of the candidates forwarded to it by an initial review panel.
- 3701.27 For a candidate to be appointed, a majority of the voting members of the Commission must vote in favor of the appointment.

3702 APPOINTMENT OF HEARING OFFICERS TO AN INITIAL TWO-YEAR TERM AS ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGES

- 3702.1 A hearing officer serving in an agency to which the Act becomes applicable and who is eligible for an appointment as an Administrative Law Judge pursuant to section 11(e) of the Act (D.C. Official Code § 2-1831.08(e), shall file with the Chief Administrative Law Judge a request for such appointment.
- 3702.5 The Chief Administrative Law Judge may prescribe a form for the submission of such a request. The form may require information reasonably necessary to show that the hearing officer meets the qualifications set forth in the Act or in this Chapter.
- 3702.6 Each request shall demonstrate that the hearing officer is qualified for appointment as an Administrative Law Judge pursuant to section 11(e) of the Act, D.C. Official Code § 2-1831.08(e). The request shall contain:
- (a) A description of the hearing officer's current position in a covered agency and the amount of time he or she has been so serving;

- 3702.9 If the Commission finds that the hearing officer satisfies the qualifications set forth in this section 3702 and in section 3703, it shall appoint the hearing officer to an initial two-year term as an Administrative Law Judge. A majority of the voting members of the Commission must approve all such appointments.
- 3702.10 The term of a hearing officer appointed as an Administrative Law Judge pursuant to this section shall commence on the day that the Act becomes applicable to cases heard by the agency by which he or she is employed when the request is submitted to the Chief Administrative Law Judge.
- 3702.11 For a former hearing officer to remain qualified for his or her appointment as an Administrative Law Judge, he or she must pass a qualifying examination approved by the Commission pursuant to section 3704 of this Chapter, either before the appointment takes effect, or within 18 months of the appointment's effective date.
- 3702.12 If a qualifying examination approved by the Commission has not been offered and graded at least three times between the date of submission of a hearing officer's request for appointment and 18 months after the effective date of his or her appointment, the deadline for a hearing officer to remain qualified by passing the qualifying examination shall be extended until such an examination has been offered and graded three times after the date of submission of the hearing officer's request for appointment.

3704 QUALIFYING EXAMINATION

- 3704.1 No qualifying examination may be administered unless it has been approved by the Commission as provided in this section.

- 3704.2 Except as provided in section 3702.11, only applicants whom an initial review panel decides to interview in a final round interview may take the qualifying examination. - 3704.12 Each grader shall grade each examination independently. For an examination to receive a passing grade, at least fifty percent (50%) of the assigned graders must award it a passing grade.

- 3704.13 The examination shall be graded non-competitively, and neither the initial review panel nor the Commission shall use the examination to rank applicants in any way, other than to distinguish those who pass from those who fail.
- 3704.14 The decision of the graders shall be final, and neither the Commission nor an initial review panel may review the graders' decision.
- 3704.15 In forwarding applications to the Commission, the initial review panel shall inform the Commission only that an applicant has passed the examination, and shall give no other information about the applicant's performance on the examination.

3705 REAPPOINTMENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGES

- 3705.1 No earlier than nine (9) months before the expiration of an Administrative Law Judge's term of office, any Administrative Law Judge seeking reappointment to a new term (including a Senior Administrative Law Judge) shall file a statement with the Commission and with the Chief Administrative Law Judge requesting reappointment.
- 3705.2 If such a statement is not filed by any Administrative Law Judge at least six (6) months before the expiration of his or her term, a vacancy shall result from the expiration of the term of office and shall be filled by appointment as provided in section 3702.
- 3705.3 The statement may review significant aspects of the Administrative Law Judge's activities that the Administrative Law Judge believes will be helpful to the Commission in the evaluation of his or her candidacy for reappointment.

- 3705.4 For every Administrative Law Judge who files a statement in accordance with section 3705.1, the Chief Administrative Law Judge shall prepare a record for the Commission's review. That record shall contain:
- (a) Copies of performance evaluations of the Administrative Law Judge, as set forth below:
 - (1) For Administrative Law Judges completing a ten-year term, the record shall contain performance evaluations for at least the previous five years;

 - (d) Data on how the Administrative Law Judge has met applicable objective performance standards during his or her term;
 - (e) The Chief Administrative Law Judge's recommendation, with a statement of reasons, as to whether the Administrative Law Judge should be reappointed; and
 - (f) Any other information requested by one or more members of the Commission.
- 3705.5 The Chief Administrative Law Judge shall file the record required by section 3705.4 with the Clerk within 120 days of the filing of a statement by the Administrative Law Judge in accordance with section 3705.1.
- 3705.6 The Chief Administrative Law Judge shall serve a copy of the record upon the Administrative Law Judge no later than the same day that the record is filed with the Commission.
- 3705.7 As soon as practicable after receiving a statement of intent to seek reappointment from an Administrative Law Judge, the Commission shall publish a notice in the District of Columbia Register that the Administrative Law Judge is seeking reappointment and that the Commission is soliciting the views of litigants, attorneys and members of the public on whether the Administrative Law Judge should be reappointed.
- 3705.8 The notice required by section 3705.7 shall call for comments to be submitted to the Commission within thirty (30) calendar days of its publication.

- 3705.9 The Commission shall provide copies of any comments it receives to the Administrative Law Judge, and shall redact the names and other information that identifies the person submitting the comments.
- 3705.10 Within ten (10) calendar days of service of the record or of the Commission's sending of public comments to the Administrative Law Judge, whichever is later, an Administrative Law Judge who wishes to respond to the Chief Administrative Law Judge's recommendation or to any public comments or to add information to the record that he or she believes should be considered with respect to his or her reappointment shall file with the Clerk a notice of intent to supplement the record. The Administrative Law Judge may file such a notice regardless of whether he or she files a request to appear before the Commission. The notice shall describe generally the additional information that the Administrative Law Judge intends to add to the record and shall be promptly transmitted to the members of the Commission by the Clerk.
- 3705.11 Within ten (10) calendar days of service of the record, or of the Commission's sending of public comments to the Administrative Law Judge, whichever is later, an Administrative Law Judge who wishes to appear before the Commission to be heard in person concerning his or her reappointment shall file with the Clerk a request to appear. The Administrative Law Judge may file such a request regardless of whether he or she has filed a notice of intent to supplement the record. The request shall be promptly transmitted to the members of the Commission by the Clerk.
- 3705.12 If the Administrative Law Judge does not timely file a notice of intent to supplement the record or a request to appear, the Commission may proceed to consider the application for reappointment based solely on the Administrative Law Judge's written statement, the record filed by the Chief Administrative Law Judge and any public comments.
- 3705.13 If an Administrative Law Judge files a notice of intent to supplement the record, he or she must file with the Commission and the Chief Administrative Law Judge any response to the Chief Administrative Law Judge's recommendation and any additional information that he or she wishes the Commission to consider within twenty (20) calendar days of filing the notice of intent to supplement.
- 3705.14 If an Administrative Law Judge fails to supplement the record within the deadline established in section 3705.13, the Commission may proceed to consider the reappointment without waiting for the filing of any supplement to the record by the Administrative Law Judge.
- 3705.15 If an Administrative Law Judge has filed a request to appear before the Commission, the Commission may not vote on his or her reappointment or issue a notice of grounds for possible denial of reappointment unless it affords the Administrative Law Judge an opportunity to appear before it.

- 3705.16 The Commission may request that an Administrative Law Judge appear personally or respond in writing to any questions or concerns it may have.
- 3705.17 No Administrative Law Judge may be denied reappointment unless the Commission first serves upon him or her a notice of grounds for possible denial of reappointment. Any such notice shall specify the reasons why the Commission is considering the possible denial of his or her application for reappointment and shall set a date, at least twenty (20) days after service of the notice, on which the Commission will meet to consider final action on the request for reappointment. The Commission may not take final action on the request for reappointment until the conclusion of such meeting.
- 3705.18 Within fifteen (15) days of service of a notice of grounds for possible denial of reappointment, an Administrative Law Judge may file a written response to the notice, and may request an opportunity to appear at the Commission's meeting.
- 3705.19 An Administrative Law Judge who timely files a request to appear at the Commission's meeting shall have the right to appear and be heard at the meeting. In its discretion, the Commission may permit other persons to testify at the meeting, either in support of, or in opposition to, the request for reappointment.
- 3705.20 The voting members of the Commission shall vote on the request for reappointment prior to the expiration of the Administrative Law Judge's term, but no earlier than 60 days prior to such expiration. In case of conflict between this section and section 3705.17, section 3705.17 shall control.
- 3705.21 In deciding whether to reappoint an Administrative Law Judge, the Commission shall consider all information it has received concerning the reappointment, and the voting members shall give significant weight to the recommendation of the Chief Administrative Law Judge, unless they determine that the recommendation is not founded on substantial evidence. The Commission shall reappoint the Administrative Law Judge if it finds that the Administrative Law Judge has satisfactorily performed the responsibilities of his or her office and is likely to continue to do so.
- 3705.22 The Commission shall issue a written statement of reasons for every decision to reappoint or not to reappoint an Administrative Law Judge.
- 3705.23 The Commission's decision on whether to reappoint the Administrative Law Judge shall be final, and a decision not to reappoint an Administrative Law Judge shall not be deemed to be disciplinary action.
- 3705.24 Any decision by the Commission not to reappoint an Administrative Law Judge shall be reviewable only to the same extent as a decision of the District of Columbia Commission on Judicial Disabilities and Tenure giving an evaluation of "Unqualified."
- 3705.25 An Administrative Law Judge who is reappointed pursuant to this section shall serve a term of ten years, beginning on the expiration date of his or her current term, or on the date he or she is notified in writing of the Commission's vote, whichever is later.

- 3705.26 If the Commission does not vote on the reappointment of an Administrative Law Judge before the expiration of his or her current term, the Administrative Law Judge may, in the discretion of the Chief Administrative Law Judge, be retained as a non-judicial employee of the Office, without reduction in grade or step, until the Commission votes on his or her reappointment.

3725.3 Each Administrative Law Judge shall be deemed to be on notice of Administrative Orders and other issuances of the Chief Administrative Law Judge so long as such documents are maintained by the Office of Administrative Hearings and made reasonably available for review.

3725.4 To the extent a document covered by this section has been redacted, an Administrative Law Judge shall not be deemed to be on notice of the redacted material unless he or she has received it separately.

3729.3 A removal under section 3729.2 shall be designated as an involuntary retirement.

3730 INVESTIGATIONS

3730.1 The Commission may investigate and deliberate to determine whether a formal proceeding to discipline or remove an Administrative Law Judge should be instituted. It may do so upon proposal of the Chief Administrative Law Judge, or upon receiving information giving it reason to believe that there may be cause to discipline or remove an Administrative Law Judge.

3730.2 The investigation may be carried out in any lawful manner that the Commission deems appropriate, including without limitation, interviews, document reviews, the taking of evidence at Commission meetings or by deposition, and the issuance of subpoenas when authorized by law.

3730.3 The Commission may elect to notify the Administrative Law Judge in writing of the pendency of the investigation if it would not be prejudicial to the interests of justice.

3730.4 If, after investigation, the Commission has reason to believe that there is cause to discipline or remove an Administrative Law Judge, it may commence a formal proceeding against the Administrative Law Judge.

3730.5 If the Commission determines not to institute a formal proceeding, it shall so inform the Administrative Law Judge upon his or her inquiry, or if the Commission or its designee previously informed the Administrative Law Judge of the investigation. The Commission also shall give written notice to any complainant either that there is insufficient cause to proceed, or that the complaint poses a legal issue over which the Commission has no jurisdiction, as appropriate.

3730.6 Before instituting a formal proceeding against an Administrative Law Judge, the Commission shall serve the Administrative Law Judge with notice of the investigation and offer the Administrative Law Judge an opportunity to meet with the Commission.

3730.7 If the Administrative Law Judge files a request to meet with the Commission within seven (7) days of service of notice of the investigation, the Commission shall meet with the Administrative Law Judge and his or her counsel, if any, for the purpose of considering whether the matter should be disposed of without a proceeding.

3730.8 An Administrative Law Judge may voluntarily terminate any investigation or formal proceeding before the Commission by filing with the Clerk a binding notarized statement that the Administrative Law Judge voluntarily resigns or retires from his or her position as an Administrative Law Judge; that he or she wishes to terminate the investigation or formal proceeding without a decision on the merits; and that he or she agrees never again to seek or accept an appointment as an Administrative Law Judge.

- 3730.9 Any person submitting a statement to the Commission pursuant to section 3730.8 shall not be qualified to be appointed as an Administrative Law Judge at any time thereafter.
- 3730.10 If an investigation is concluded without commencement of a formal proceeding, the Commission shall give written notice to the complainant explaining that the matter has been resolved and the nature of that resolution.
- 3730.11 Individuals interviewed by any member of the Commission or persons acting on its behalf during an investigation shall be asked to keep the matter confidential.
- 3730.12 All records and meetings relating to an investigation that does not result in a formal proceeding shall be non-public records of the Commission. All records and meetings relating to an inquiry that results in a formal proceeding, unless otherwise privileged or confidential under law, shall be public records of the Commission.
- 3730.13 If an Administrative Law Judge requests that a record documenting a non-public decision disposing of an inquiry involving that Administrative Law Judge be made public, the Commission shall make that record public within ten (10) days of the request. If an Administrative Law Judge requests that a document other than one documenting the decision from an investigation or complaint be made public, the Commission shall do so if it would serve the interests of justice.

3734 FORMAL PROCEEDINGS

- 3734.1 If the Commission institutes a formal proceeding against an Administrative Law Judge, it shall issue a written notice to the Administrative Law Judge advising him or her that the investigation has led to the institution of a formal proceeding against him or her.
- 3734.2 Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, each formal proceeding shall be titled as follows:

- 3734.5 The notice of formal proceeding shall specify concisely the charges and the alleged basis for the charges, and shall advise the Administrative Law Judge of the following:

- 3734.7 An Administrative Law Judge shall file a written answer to a notice of formal proceeding within twenty (20) days of service of the notice.
- 3734.8 In his or her answer, an Administrative Law Judge shall raise every procedural and substantive defense or challenge and every fact or matter in extenuation, exculpation, or mitigation of which the Administrative Law Judge has knowledge or reasonably should have knowledge. Failure to include any such matter in the answer shall preclude the Administrative Law Judge from relying upon it at any point in the formal proceeding or subsequent judicial review.
- 3734.9 The Chairperson or the Commission may extend the time for filing an answer.
- 3734.10 In the interests of justice, the Commission at any time prior to its final decision in a proceeding may amend the notice of formal proceeding or may permit the answer to be amended to conform to proof or otherwise.
- 3734.11 The Administrative Law Judge shall be given a reasonable time to answer an amendment and to present his or her defense against any matter charged in an amendment.
- 3734.12 The notice of proceeding and the answer shall constitute the pleadings. No further pleadings or motions shall be filed, unless expressly authorized by the Commission.

3735 HEARINGS IN FORMAL PROCEEDINGS

- 3735.1 Upon the timely filing of an answer, unless good cause to the contrary appears in the answer, or if no timely answer is filed, the Commission shall order an evidentiary hearing to be held before it concerning the matters specified in the notice of formal proceeding.
- 3735.2 The Commission shall set a time and place for the hearing and, at least thirty (30) days prior to the date set, shall mail a notice of the hearing time and place by registered, certified, or express mail to the Administrative Law Judge addressed to the Administrative Law Judge at his or her Office of Administrative Hearings address and his or her last known home address and to the Administrative Law Judge's counsel, if any.

Such documents may be redacted to protect privacy and confidential information, and to remove irrelevant and privileged information, but only to the extent consistent with due process.
- 3735.6 At the time and place set for hearing, the Commission shall proceed with the hearing whether or not the Administrative Law Judge has filed an answer or appears at the hearing.
- 3735.7 The hearing shall be held before the Commission, and evidence shall be received only when a quorum of the Commission is present.
- 3735.8 The Chairperson, or his or her designee, shall control the conduct of the proceeding, which shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures for contested hearings under D.C. Official Code § 2-509 and any other applicable law. In evaluating the weight of any evidence, the Commission shall use the codified rules of evidence applicable in the Superior Court of the District of Columbia once a comprehensive codification occurs, or if no such code exists, the Federal Rules of Evidence.
- 3735.9 The failure of the Administrative Law Judge to answer or to appear at the hearing shall not, standing alone, be taken as evidence of the truth of facts alleged to constitute cause for discipline or removal, but it may be a basis for an adverse inference.
- 3735.10 Special counsel designated by the Commission may present evidence against the Administrative Law Judge at the hearing.
- 3735.11 The Commission shall keep a complete record of each formal proceeding, including a verbatim record of each hearing. Upon request, a copy of the record of a formal proceeding shall be provided to the Administrative Law Judge at the expense of the District of Columbia.

Any such counsel must be an active member of the District of Columbia Bar, or may be admitted to represent the Administrative Law Judge pro hac vice by the Commission to the extent such admission would serve the interests of justice.
- 3735.13 The Administrative Law Judge shall be admitted to the hearing unless he or she is incompetent or so disruptive as to make it unduly burdensome for the Commission to conduct the hearing. If the Administrative Law Judge is not admitted, he or she shall be offered audio and visual access to the hearing.

- 3735.14 An Administrative Law Judge shall be given every reasonable opportunity to defend himself or herself against the charges at the hearing, including the introduction of evidence and examination and cross-examination of witnesses.
- 3735.15 [RESERVED]
- 3735.16 If it appears to the Commission at any time during a proceeding that the Administrative Law Judge is not competent to act for himself or herself, the Commission shall seek the appointment of a guardian ad litem unless the Administrative Law Judge has a legal representative who will act for him or her.
- 3735.17 The guardian ad litem or legal representative may exercise any right and privilege and make any defense for the Administrative Law Judge with the same force and effect as if exercised or made by the Administrative Law Judge if he or she were competent. Whenever the provisions of this chapter provide for notice to the Administrative Law Judge, that notice shall be given to the guardian ad litem or legal representative.
- 3735.18 Hearings in formal proceedings shall be open to the public, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission in order to avoid unfair prejudice to the persons other than the Administrative Law Judge who is the subject of the formal proceeding.

- 3736.3 A copy of the findings and conclusions also shall be filed with the Clerk, together with the entire record.

3737.4 During any period of suspension pursuant to this Chapter, an Administrative Law Judge shall remain absent from the Office, unless authorized in writing to enter the premises by the Chief Administrative Law Judge.

3738 SUMMARY SUSPENSION UPON COMMENCEMENT OF CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

3738.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the Commission shall suspend an Administrative Law Judge with pay if it has probable cause to believe any of the following:

3738.3 Within ten (10) days of service of the notice of summary suspension, the Administrative Law Judge may file a written response. The response shall address only whether the Administrative Law Judge has been indicted for a felony, or whether a criminal proceeding described in section 3738.1 (b) or (c) has been commenced against him or her. The response shall not address the merits of the underlying charges.

3738.4 The Commission promptly shall review any response filed by the Administrative Law Judge. After such review, if the Commission finds that the preponderance of the evidence does not establish that the Administrative Law Judge has been indicted for a felony or that a criminal proceeding described in section 3738.1(b) or (c) has been commenced against him or her, it shall vacate the summary suspension forthwith. Otherwise, the summary suspension shall remain in effect pending the final outcome of the criminal proceedings. The Commission shall not address the merits of the underlying charge.

The response shall address only whether the Administrative Law Judge has been convicted of a crime specified in section 3739.1, and shall not address the merits of the underlying charges.

3739.4 The Commission promptly shall review any response filed by the Administrative Law Judge. After such review, if the Commission finds that the preponderance of the evidence does not establish that the Administrative Law Judge has been convicted of a crime specified in section 3739.1, it shall vacate the summary suspension forthwith. Otherwise, the summary suspension shall remain in effect pending the outcome of any appeal or any proceeding to remove the Administrative Law Judge. The Commission shall not address the merits of the underlying charge.

- 3739.5 Upon issuance of a final order affirming the conviction, or the running of the time for filing an appeal without any appeal being filed, the Commission shall issue an order summarily removing the Administrative Law Judge from office.

- 3740.9 A decision issued pursuant to section 3740.8 shall state that corrective disciplinary action either shall be taken or shall not be taken and shall contain a statement of the reasons for the Chief Administrative Law Judge's decision. If corrective disciplinary action will be taken, the decision shall state the nature and applicable dates, if any, of the corrective disciplinary action and shall state with specificity the cause upon which the corrective disciplinary action is based.
- 3740.10 If the Chief Administrative Law Judge decides, in the exercise of his or her discretion, to take corrective disciplinary action, he or she may impose the corrective disciplinary action proposed in the notice issued pursuant to section 3740.5, or any less severe corrective disciplinary action, but may not impose a corrective disciplinary action more severe than proposed in the notice.

- 3740.16. The Commission shall affirm the decision of the Chief Administrative Law Judge unless it finds that there is not substantial evidence in the record to support the Chief Administrative Law Judge's finding of cause. The Commission may not overturn the Chief Administrative Law Judge's exercise of discretion to choose a sanction unless it concludes that the sanction was unlawful.
- 3740.17 If the Commission reverses a suspension without pay imposed by the Chief Administrative Law Judge, the Administrative Law Judge shall receive any pay and other benefits that were lost as the result of the suspension.
- 3740.18 A corrective disciplinary action taken against an Administrative Law Judge pursuant to this section shall not preclude the Commission from taking any action authorized by sections 3730 to 3739, including the imposition of any additional sanction upon the Administrative Law Judge.

If the Commission determines that the summary suspension did not comply with the requirements of this section, it shall issue an order vacating the summary suspension and restoring any pay and benefits lost by the Administrative Law Judge during the suspension.
- 3741.8 Summary suspension of an Administrative Law Judge pursuant to this section shall not preclude the Commission from taking any action authorized by sections 3730 to 3739, including the imposition of an additional sanction upon the Administrative Law Judge.
