15-286

IN THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

November 25, 2003

To approve proposed Contract No. POHC-2003-C-1752 with Care Pharmacy, Inc. (also referred to as Care Pharmacies) for the distribution and dispensing of anti-retroviral and other HIV-related medication services.

RESOLVED, BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, That this resolution may be cited as the "Proposed Contract No. POHC-2003-C-1752 with Care Pharmacy (Pharmacies), Inc. Approval Resolution of 2003".

Sec. 2. (a) Pursuant to section 451 of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, approved December 24, 1973 (87 Stat. 803; D.C. Official Code § 1-204.51), and pursuant to section 105a of the District of Columbia Procurement Practices Act, effective March 8, 1991 (D.C. Law 6-85; D.C. Official Code § 2-301.05a), the Mayor transmitted proposed Contract No. POHC-2003-C-1752 with Care Pharmacy (Pharmacies), Inc., in the amount of $1,010,000 for the distribution and dispensing of anti-retroviral and other HIV-related medication services to the Council for review and approval.

A RESOLUTION

15-316

IN THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

November 4, 2003

To declare the existence of an emergency with respect to the need to regulate the election of delegates representing the District of Columbia to national political conventions and to waive the petition requirement for United States presidential candidates.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, That this act may be cited as the "Presidential Primary State Committee Elections Emergency Declaration Resolution of 2003".

Sec. 2. (a) In the past, presidential candidates were required to acquire 500 valid signatures of District of Columbia ("District") residents to be placed on the ballot.

(b) The Council passed the Presidential Primary Act of 2003, which became law June 20, 2003.

(c) This legislation is another attempt to ensure candidates participate in our "first in the nation" primary without hesitation.

(d) When the Presidential Primary Election Amendment Act of 2003 was passed, an amendment was offered which moved the elections of the national committee man, national committee woman, and the District's House of Representative delegate to the September 2004 election.

(e) Because the state committee members, also elected as a part of the Democratic State Committee elections, were not moved at that time, this act will ensure consistency in the Democratic State Committee's election process.

(f) The Presidential Primary State Committee Elections Emergency Amendment Act of 2003 has essentially the same provisions as D.C. Act 15-135, the Presidential Primary Petition Waiver and Democratic State Committee Elections Emergency Amendment Act of 2003, which expired on October 27, 2003.

Sec. 3. The Council of the District of Columbia determines that the circumstances enumerated in section 2 constitute emergency circumstances making it necessary that Presidential Primary State Committee Elections Emergency Amendment Act of 2003 be adopted after a single reading.

Sec. 4. This resolution shall take effect immediately.
