

GOVERNMENT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIAADMINISTRATIVE ISSUANCE SYSTEM

Mayor's Order 2009-13
February 9, 2009

- SUBJECT: I. Designation of a Single State Agency to Administer the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency
II. Establishment of the Juvenile Justice Advisory Group

ORIGINATING AGENCY: Office of the Mayor

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the District of Columbia by sections 422(6) and (11) of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act of 1973, as amended, 87 Stat. 790, Pub. L. No. 93-198, D.C. Official Code §§ 1-204.22(6) and (11) (2008 Supp.), and in accordance with the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act of 1974 (Act), approved September 7, 1974, Pub. L. No. 93-415, 88 Stat. 1109, it is hereby ORDERED that:

PART I

The Justice Grants Administration (JGA) is the sole Agency in the District of Columbia responsible for supervising the preparation and administration of the state plan according to section 223(a) of the Act.

PART III. ESTABLISHMENT

There is hereby established in the Government of the District of Columbia, a Juvenile Justice Advisory Group (JJAG), as the state planning agency required by section 223(a)(3) of the Act.

II. FUNCTIONS

The JJAG shall:

- a. Serve as the advisory board for the JGA, as required by section 233(a)(3) of the Act;
- b. Participate in the development and review of the District's three-year juvenile justice plan, as required by section 233(a)(3) of the Act;
- c. Participate in the review of, and advise JGA, on juvenile justice and delinquency prevention grant applications submitted to the JGA;
- d. Advise the Mayor and JGA on problems which concern:

1. The identification and analysis of the service needs of youth involved, or at-risk of becoming involved, in the juvenile justice system in the District of Columbia, and
 2. Program and policy recommendations for addressing these needs;
- e. Assist in the development of operating standards for all juvenile detention/correction facilities, group homes, and foster care homes and programs used in the juvenile justice system;
 - f. Assist in monitoring all juvenile detention/correction facilities and community-based programs to ensure compliance with the Act;
 - g. Review, in partnership with JGA, the progress and accomplishments of public and private sector juvenile justice and delinquency prevention programs funded under the District's juvenile justice plan;
 - h. Undertake studies for review or comment on special public or private juvenile research studies that impact upon District youth or juvenile services;
 - i. Submit a proposed budget for the use of JJAG funds to JGA by October 1st of each year. If a budget is not received, then JGA will have full discretion on the use of the funds;
 - j. Undertake other duties as assigned; and
 - k. Submit to the Mayor and the Council of the District of Columbia, an annual report that provides recommendations regarding compliance with the core requirements and with progress related to Formula Grant programs and challenge activities pursuant to Parts D and E of the Act.

III. COMPOSITION

- a. The Mayor shall appoint not less than 15 and not more than 33 members to the JJAG, including a Chairperson. Members shall be private individuals, representatives of non-government organizations, or representatives of appropriate agencies of government who have training, experience, special knowledge, or a demonstrated interest in the preventions and treatment of juvenile delinquency, the needs of neglected and dependent children, or the administration of juvenile justice.
 1. The majority of the members, including the Chairperson and Vice-Chair, shall not be full-time employees of the Federal, or District government.

2. At least one-fifth of the members shall be under the age of 24 at the time of appointment.
 3. At least three members shall have been or currently be under the jurisdiction of the juvenile justice system.
- b. The JJAG shall be composed of members, which include:
1. One locally elected official representing general purpose government;
 2. Representatives from law enforcement and juvenile justice agencies, including juvenile and family court judges, prosecutors, counsel for children and youth, and probation workers;
 3. Representatives of public agencies concerned with delinquency prevention or treatment, such as welfare, social services, mental health, education, special education, recreation, and youth services;
 4. Representatives of private non-profit organizations, including persons with a special focus on preserving and strengthening families, parent groups and parent self-help groups, youth development, delinquency preventions and treatment, neglected or dependent children, the quality of juvenile justice, education, and social services for children;
 5. Volunteers who work with at-risk youth;
 6. Persons involved with alternative incarceration programs, including programs providing organized recreation activities;
 7. Persons with special experience and competence in addressing problems related to school violence and vandalism and alternatives to suspension and expulsion; and
 8. Persons with special experience and competence in addressing problems related to learning disabilities, emotional difficulties, child abuse and neglect, and youth violence.

IV. TERMS

- a. Each of the members shall serve two-year terms. All members of the JJAG shall serve at the pleasure of the Mayor. A member appointed to fill a vacancy shall be appointed only for the unexpired portion of the term for that vacancy.
- b. Members may not serve for more than three consecutive terms, regardless of the length of those terms. However, members may continue to serve beyond the end of their terms until reappointed or replaced.

V. COMPENSATION

Members of the JJAG shall serve without compensation.

VI. ADMINISTRATION

The Juvenile Justice Specialist in the JGA shall provide appropriate administrative support for the JJAG.

VII. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

The JJAG shall develop and publish procedures to guard against conflicts of interest for its members and include those procedures in the JJAG By-Laws. These procedures shall provide that no member of the JJAG may participate in any way in the review of grant applications for his/her own organization or for an organization offering the same or similar services. This prohibition extends to any member of the JJAG having a family member in an organization being considered for a grant. In addition, no member of the JJAG may participate in the review of grant applications for the same or a related grant program for which his/her organization has also submitted a competing funding application.

VIII. RECISSION

This Order supersedes Mayor's Order 2008-73, dated April 30, 2008, in its entirety.

VIII. EFFECTIVE DATE: This Order shall become effective immediately.

Mayor's Order 2009-14
February 11, 2009

SUBJECT: Delegation of Authority - Director, D.C. Homeland Security and Emergency Management Agency for Use and Access of the Community Events Fund

ORIGINATING AGENCY: Office of the Mayor

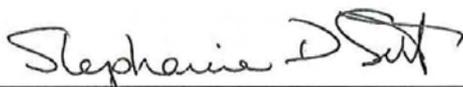

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the District of Columbia by section 422(6) and (11) of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, as amended, 87 Stat. 790, Pub. L. No. 93-198, D.C. Official Code § 1-204.22(6) and (11) (2008 Supp.), and D.C. Official Code § 47-2826 (2001), it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. THE COMMUNITY EVENTS FUND:

- a. Community based organizations sponsoring community events shall be charged special event fees under D.C. Official Code § 47-2826 (2005 Repl.), if the event is conducted for profit or gain. However, except as provided below, such fees shall not be levied against, and no costs shall be borne by, a community based organization sponsoring an event not conducted for profit or gain, except as provided herein. The Mayor in his sole discretion shall determine whether an event is being conducted for profit or gain.
- b. An organization seeking to establish that an event is not being conducted for profit or gain may petition the Mayor, or his delegate, for a determination regarding whether the event is for profit or not for profit. An organization petitioning the Mayor, or his delegate, must submit an application for the event. The organization has the burden of establishing, by sufficient evidence, that the event is not being conducted for profit or gain. The Mayor, or his delegate, may consider all information presented by the organization in its application bearing on whether the event is being conducted for profit or gain. The determination of the Mayor, or his delegate, concerning whether the event is being conducted for profit or gain shall be final.
- c. If an organization establishes that the event is not being conducted for profit or gain, the Mayor, or his delegate, in their sole discretion, may either: (1) require the organization to pay an amount, including up to the full amount, equal to all costs that the appropriate District agency could otherwise charge if the event were conducted for profit or gain; or (2) order that all costs be absorbed by the appropriate District agencies providing necessary public services to protect public health and safety.

- d. An organization wishing to have funds absorbed by an appropriate District agency, or wishing to receive financial assistance from the Community Events Fund administered by the Homeland Security and Emergency Management Agency (HSEMA), must be hosting an event in the District of Columbia that is held during a planned time of public celebration marked by special observance, or that features a program or other activity of cultural, historical, or neighborhood significance or otherwise benefiting the District.
2. BUDGET AUTHORITY:
- Funding for the Community Events Fund will be derived from appropriations for policy initiatives supporting community events, if any, in the local funds allocated in HSEMA's budget.
3. DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY:
- The Mayor's authority to determine whether an event is being conducted for profit or gain shall be, and hereby is, delegated to HSEMA.
4. EFFECTIVE DATE: This Order shall become effective immediately.

Official Code § 1-204.22(2) (2001), Mayor's Order 88-96, dated April 15, 1988 and Mayor's Order 88-262, dated December 15, 1988 are rescinded in their entirety. It is hereby ORDERED that a new establishment order is issued as follows:

I. ESTABLISHMENT

There is hereby established in the government of the District of Columbia the Mayor's Advisory Committee on Child Welfare (hereinafter referred to as the "Committee").

II. PURPOSE

The Committee shall advise the Mayor on all aspects of the District of Columbia's continuum of child welfare services, including prevention, early intervention, treatment, and sources of permanency, (i.e., reunification, guardianship, kinship care, and adoption).

III. DUTIES

The Committee shall:

- A. Recommend approaches to improving coordination of services among public agencies responsible for the provision of child welfare services;
- B. Promote public awareness of programs and advise on public concerns relating to child abuse and/or neglect in the District of Columbia;
- C. At the direction of the Mayor, develop reports/plans regarding specific issues;
- D. Serve as the Multidisciplinary Task Force for the purpose of the Children's Justice Act Grants under Public Law 100-294, the Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act of 1988;

- E. The Committee shall submit an annual report to Mayor within 6 weeks of the close of the fiscal year which includes (1) an account of the Committee's activity for the previous fiscal year; (2) a description of the Committee's priorities for the upcoming fiscal year; and (3) recommendations to the Mayor on emerging child welfare issues.
- F. At a minimum, the Chairperson shall convene the Committee on a quarterly basis.
- G. The Chairperson shall regularly transmit meeting minutes to the Mayor.
- H. The Committee shall adopt by-laws which includes that a quorum shall be the majority of the attending members.
- I. Undertake such other duties as assigned.

IV. COMPOSITION

- A. Committee members shall be appointed by the Mayor based on demonstrated expertise of one or more disciplines relating to child welfare and/or represent the interests of the public in child welfare issues.
- B. The Mayor will appoint up to 11 non-governmental members that shall include but not be limited to representatives of:
 - i) Advocacy organizations that work on behalf of children and youth, i.e., (health, mental health, education, legal, prevention of child abuse/neglect, and permanency).
 - ii) Community-based child welfare providers.
 - iii) Foster, adoptive, and birth parent advocacy groups.
 - iv) Universities, public policy organizations and research centers.
- C. The Mayor will appoint government representatives of the Child and Family Services Agency (CFSA), Department of Mental Health (DMH), Department of Youth Rehabilitation Services (DYRS), Department of Human Services (DHS), Department of Disability Services (DDS), Department of Health (DOH), Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), Office of the Attorney General (OAG), the DC Superior Court-Family Court Division, District of Columbia Public Schools (DCPS), and Office of State Superintendent of Education (OSSE) to the Committee.
- D. The Mayor shall appoint a Chairperson from among the non-governmental members and a Vice Chairperson from among the governmental members both of whom shall serve in those offices at the pleasure of the Mayor.
- E. The Committee may establish such subcommittees as it deems necessary, provided that each subcommittee is co-chaired by a governmental member of the Committee.

V. TERMS

- A. Non-governmental members of the Committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Mayor. Non-governmental members of the Committee shall serve for 3-year terms except that of the members first appointed under this Order, one-third shall be appointed for 3-year terms, one-third for 2-year terms and one-third for 1-year terms. The date members first appointed under this Order are sworn-in shall become the anniversary date for all subsequent appointments.
- B. Government members of the Committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Mayor.
- C. A member appointed to fill an un-expired term may serve for the remainder of that term. Members may continue to serve until reappointed or replaced. Members may serve not more than two consecutive full terms.

VI. COMPENSATION

Committee members shall serve without compensation, except that a non-governmental member may be reimbursed for expenses incurred in the authorized execution of official Committee functions, if approved in advance by the Mayor or designee, and subject to the appropriation of and the availability of funds.

VII. ADMINISTRATION

The Child and Family Services Agency shall provide appropriate administrative support, facilities and resources to ensure the effective operation of the Committee and the implementation of the requirements of this Order. All other appropriate government agencies will cooperate with the committee as needed.

VIII. EFFECTIVE DATE : This Order shall become effective immediately.
