ZONING COMMISSION FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

TIME AND PLACE:            Thursday, June 10, 2010 @ 6:30 p.m.
                                 Office of Zoning Hearing Room
                                 441 4th Street, N.W. Suite 220-S
                                 Washington, D.C. 20001

FOR THE PURPOSE OF CONSIDERING THE FOLLOWING:

CASE NO. 10-07 (Text Amendment to Allow Additional Flexibility for Eating and Drinking Establishments within the ARTS Overlay District)

THIS CASE IS OF INTEREST TO ANCs 1B, 2B, and 2F

The Office of Planning (“OP”), in a report dated April 15, 2010, petitioned the Zoning Commission (the “Commission”) for a text amendment to allow additional flexibility for eating and drinking establishments within the ARTS Overlay District.

OP recommended that § 1901.6 be amended to change the overlay-wide method of measurement to a square-by-square method (excluding any area of right-of-way), establish at 50% the maximum amount of linear foot frontage within each square fronting on 14th Street or U Street, N.W that can be occupied by eating and drinking establishments, and clarify that this limit applies only to ground floor frontage. A chart would also be added to the subsection that specifies the total street frontage occupied by each affected lot. OP will verify these measurements prior to the public hearing.

OP also proposed amending § 1906.1. That provision authorizes the Board of Zoning Adjustment (“BZA”) to grant relief from any of the other provisions of the overlay. The amendment would disallow such relief from the 50% limit, leaving only the grant of a variance available. In addition, the subsection would be amended to specify that the BZA, when considering whether to grant a special exception from the remaining overlay provisions, should apply the criteria stated in paragraphs (c) or (d), concerning architectural concept and vehicular access, only if the criteria are relevant to the relief sought.

At its regular public meeting held April 26, 2010, the Commission set down this case for a public hearing. The OP report served as the pre-hearing submittal for the case.

When setting down this case for a public hearing, the Commission authorized the publication of a proposed rulemaking notice, which is also published in this edition of the D.C. Register.

The Commission also authorized the immediate publication of this public hearing notice, and a 30 day advertisement period for the public hearing notice. In doing so, the Commission waived its normal rule requiring certain supplemental filings before advertising the public hearing notice, 11 DCMR 3013, and the 40 day notice period requirements of 11 DCMR § 3014.1.

The proposed amendments to the Zoning Regulations, Title 11 DCMR, are as follows:
