Mayor's Order 2010-68
May 14, 2010

SUBJECT: Establishment–District of Columbia Early Childhood Advisory Council

ORIGINATING AGENCY: Office of the State Superintendent of Education

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the District of Columbia by section 422(6) and (11) of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act of 1973, as amended, 87 Stat. 790, Pub. L. No. 93-198, D.C. Official Code §§1-204.22(6) and (11) (2009 Supp.); and in accordance with section 642B(b)(1)(A) of the Improving Head Start for School Readiness Act of 2007, 121 Stat 1363, P.L. 110-134, approved December 12, 2007, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §9837b (Head Start Act), it is hereby ORDERED that:

I. ESTABLISHMENT

There is hereby established for the District of Columbia an Early Childhood Advisory Council (ECAC). The ECAC shall serve as the official state advisory council on early childhood education and care for children from birth to school entry.

II. DUTIES

The ECAC shall:

- A. Conduct a periodic statewide needs assessment concerning the quality and availability of early childhood education and development programs and services for children from birth to school entry, including an assessment of the availability of high-quality pre-kindergarten services for low-income children in the District;
- B. Identify opportunities for, and barriers to, collaboration, and coordination among federally-funded and state-funded child development, child care, and early childhood education programs, and services, including collaboration and coordination among District agencies responsible for administering such programs;
- C. Develop recommendations for increasing the overall participation of children in existing federal, state, and local child care and early childhood education programs, including outreach to underrepresented and special populations;
- D. Develop recommendations regarding the establishment of a unified data collection system for public early childhood education and development programs and services throughout the District;

- E. Develop recommendations regarding statewide professional development and career advancement plans for early childhood educators in the District;
- F. Assess the capacity and effectiveness of two (2) and four (4) year public and private institutions of higher education in the District toward supporting the development of early childhood educators, including the extent to which such institutions have in place articulation agreements, professional development and career advancement plans, and practice or internships for students to spend time in a Head Start or pre kindergarten program;
- G. Make recommendations for improvements in the District's early learning standards and undertake efforts to develop high-quality comprehensive early learning standards, as appropriate; and
- H. The ECAC shall also complete all other responsibilities and functions delegated to state advisory councils under Section 642B (b)(1)(D) of the Head Start Act, including additional functions as may be designated periodically by the Mayor.

III. COMPOSITION

- A. The ECAC shall consist of members representing government agencies working with early childhood education and care and individuals knowledgeable about early childhood education and care in the District of Columbia, including a Chairperson appointed by the Mayor and who shall serve in that capacity at the pleasure of the Mayor.
- B. The membership of the ECAC shall be by appointment by the Mayor and shall include representation from the following:
 - 1. A representative of the District's agency responsible for child care;
 - 2. A representative of the District's state educational agency;
 - 3. A representative of the District's local educational agencies;
 - 4. A representative of institutions of higher education in the District;
 - 5. A representative of local providers of early childhood education and development services;
 - 6. A representative from Head Start agencies located in the District, including migrant and seasonal Head Start programs and Indian Head Start programs;
 - 7. The District's state director of Head Start Collaboration;

8. A representative of the state agency responsible for programs under section 619 or part C of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, approved April 13, 1970, as amended (20 U.S.C. 1419, 1431-1444);
9. A representative of the District agency or agencies responsible for health and mental health care;
10. A representative of the Public Charter School Board; and
11. Representatives of other entities as determined by the Mayor.

IV. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

The ECAC shall develop and publish procedures to guard against conflicts of interest for its members. These procedures shall guarantee that no member of the ECAC shall participate in any way in consideration of, or making decisions on, grants to his or her own organization or to any organization offering the same or similar services. This prohibition extends to any member of the ECAC having a family member in an organization being considered for a grant.

V. TERMS

- A. Members of the ECAC shall be appointed for a three-year term, though initial terms may be less than three years.
- B. Government members shall serve at the pleasure of the Mayor.

VI. ORGANIZATION

- A. The Mayor shall appoint a member of the ECAC to serve as Chairperson and shall serve in that capacity at the pleasure of the Mayor.
- B. The ECAC may elect other officers as necessary for its efficient operation.
- C. The Chairperson may establish subcommittees as may be necessary to carry out the functions of the ECAC. Persons who are not members of the ECAC may serve on a subcommittee, but an ECAC member shall serve as subcommittee chair.

VII. ADMINISTRATION

Administrative support for the Council shall be provided by the State Superintendent of Education and the Office of the State Superintendent of Education. Other agencies of the District of Columbia government shall cooperate with the Council as appropriate.

VIII. COMPENSATION

Members of the ECAC shall serve without compensation. Expenses of the ECAC, when approved in advance by the State Superintendent of Education, shall become obligations against funds designated for that purpose.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This Order shall be effective immediately.
